INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $96.07

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $2,745.23
SECOND HALF DUE: $2,745.22

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $7,840.87

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $1,659.00

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $1,508.33
SECOND HALF DUE: $1,508.32

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $626.85

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $1,067.33
SECOND HALF DUE: $1,067.32

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $4,173.22

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $4,643.10
SECOND HALF DUE: $4,643.10

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $302.40
SECOND HALF DUE: $302.40

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.
Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

SECOND HALF DUE: $1,066.80

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $454.86
SECOND HALF DUE: $454.86

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Per State law, ownership & valuation of all real estate/personal prop are established as of April 1st. If you have sold your real estate since April 1, 2022, it is your obligation to forward this bill to the current owner.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.

Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.

FIRST HALF DUE: $659.93
SECOND HALF DUE: $659.92

INFORMATION

Without State Aid to Education, Homestead Exemption & BETE (Personal Prop) Exemption Reimbursements & Maine Revenue Sharing, your tax bill would have been 18.1% higher.

Taxes are due in 2 installments for this billing year. Tax payments can be made in full and pre-payments are accepted. Interest at 4% will be charged on any balance due as 11/02/2022 & 02/02/2023

The Town has no outstanding bonded indebtedness as of the date this bill is issued.

Please forward this bill to your mortgage holder/bank if they escrow your tax payment.

Tax payments made are applied to any prior years unpaids including liens, fees, etc.
Any requests for abatement of taxes must be submitted in writing prior to March 13, 2023

Notice: Per Maine, Title 36 §706-A M.R.S.A., property owners are to furnish to the assessor a true and perfect list of all property (real & personal) not by law exempt from taxation of which they were in possession as of April 1st. Failure to provide such a list may bar the right to appeal the assessment of such property.
